Dear Friends: Namaste.

ACCOUNTS 16TH MAHA SAMMELAN

While planning 16th Maha Sammelan, it was our intent that registration fees, hotel tariff etc. should be kept to a very reasonable amount but should cover all the basic expenses of the Sammelan. I am very happy to report that we came very close to achieving that objective in spite of the fact that we had very elaborate arrangements, including banquet, variety of very good quality food, bus tour for our youth & excellent transportation. The total expense was $ 19959 while the collections were $ 18823 resulting in a small deficit of $1136 only. Please log on <http://www.aryasamaj.com/comnews.html> to review the spreadsheet which details all the income & expenses. Accounts APSA...

Diwali 2006.

India is the land of festivals .Every nation, race and religion has its own festivals. The literal meaning of festival is any kind of regularly held joyous celebration which make us remember the rationale behind it and enables us to rededicate ourselves to its cause. These festivals keep the nation, the race alive and inspired. These festivals add joy and luster to life and fill it with new hopes , aspirations, and vitality. Deepawali (Diwali) is the main festivals of Hindus. Diwali 2006...

Bhagat Singh

100th Birth Anniversary. September 27th was the 100th Birth Anniversary of Bhagat Singh. This is probably something for the youths, politicians of today and those who wish well for India. The legend of Bhagat Singh is to remind all the scarifies, losses, courage of the freedom fighter, read more about it Read more Bhagat Singh At the age of 21...

True Religion. (Vivek Arya)

RELIGION, as it presently exists in the society, has been grossly misconceived. We can see bigotry, dogmatism, sectarianism, intolerance and fanaticism in the name of religion, which is also the standing evidence of miserably condition of people at large. Read more about True Religion...
