Diwali Celebration at the Arya Samaj Greater Houston

The Diwali celebration at the Arya Samaj Greater Houston (ASGH) has become an annual tradition for the large Hindu community of the Houston area. In keeping with this tradition, the Arya Samaj held its Diwali celebration and mela on Sunday, October 22, 2006. Like previous years, the ASGH volunteers and school children had planned a multi-faceted program, and with the weather cooperating, it turned out to be a memorable evening for the large number of people who attended. ### An Eyewitness Account of International Arya Confluence 2006.

VEDIC CONFLUENCE ENTHRALLED ALL

By Brigadier Chitranjan Sawant, VSM

Aryas came, Aryas saw and Aryas conquered. They came from all over the world, both old and new. Over 40,000 men, women and children from as many as 21 countries assembled in the Arya Nagar, Rohini, Delhi from 26 to 29 October 2006 for the International Arya Confluence. The aim was: Introspection, Interaction, Spiritual Resuscitation and Rededication to carry the mission of Maharishi Dayanand forward to eradicate Avidya and inculcate Vidya. It was resolved to spread the message of the VEDAS to every nook and corner of the world to enlighten all human beings. Read more..

Mahatma Gandhi Week Celebrations at Arya Samaj Greater Houston

On Sept 30th 2006, Arya Samaj Greater Houston transformed into a classroom on human values, Satya, Ahimsa, Simplicity, Peace, Vegetarianism and much more, coming from the philosophy and life of Mahatma Gandhi. These values are very similar to those taught every Sunday, in the DAV Sanskriti School, run by Arya Samaj Greater Houston. Read More...
